

Power Organizational Potential

Identify

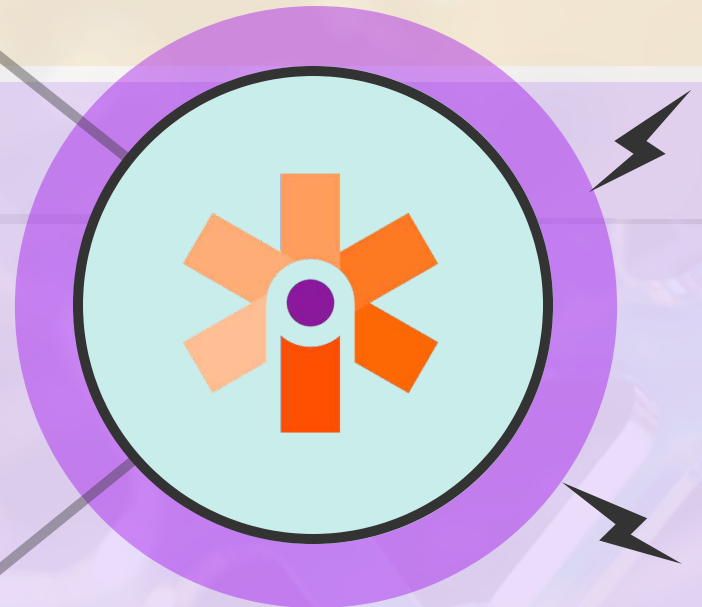

The AEM-Cube tool identifies what energizes employees. The only cognitive tool that ties personal motivation to organizational strategy and maps emotional intelligence by revealing preferences between:

- Innovation and Efficiency
- People and Matter
- Generalization and Specialization

Ignite

The Innovation Lab (i-Lab) is a proven process that ignites an agile culture and provides clear outcomes tied to organizational needs.

- Execute real world solutions
- Provide leader development
- Initiate agile teams

Integrate

Agile cultures require the integration of cognitive diversity, specific to each organization's needs. Identifying strengths and aligning them with strategy energizes potential and increases profits. Inclusive cultures lead to success.
